DANCE STYLES

JAZZ: Styles can include commercial, heels, modern, lyrical and Broadway. Often used in film clips, musical theatre, movies, floorshows, advertisements and television. Originally a mixture of African rhythms and American jazz music. Classes usually consist of a warm up, technique and strengthening exercises, across the room progressions and dance combinations including turns, jumps, jetes.
HIP HOP: Street dance using the latest sounds in rap, R&B and pop music together with movements that are influenced by todays video clips. Hip hop class styles can include funk, popping, locking, and breaking as well as freestyle movement to form a style that is diverse and forever changing. Classes include a warm up and dance combinations.
BALLET influences all other forms of dance: stretched feet, turn out, elevation, flexibility. Barre work, centre exercises, across the room progressions and dance combinations are included in all classes.
TAP: Is percussion in dance. Intricate sounds and rhythms. Develops fitness and concentration. Popularised by the likes of Fred Astaire and Gene Kelly and draws on street tap and industrial tap. Classes include barre, centre, travelling steps and a dance combination.
CONTEMPORARY: A versatile and expressive dance form that blends modern, classical, and lyrical techniques to create fluid, emotive movement.
LYRICAL: Lyrical fuses ballet, jazz, and contemporary techniques to interpret music through expressive, fluid choreography focused on emotion and storytelling.
ACRO DANCE: Classes work towards improving flexibility, strength, and control through learning how to properly execute acrobatic tricks similar to the mat component of gymnastics; such as cartwheels and walk-overs, as well as balances such as headstands and handstands, progressing to round offs and aerials.
BROADWAY JAZZ a theatrical dance style seen in musicals and stage shows. It's lively, expressive, and combines jazz moves with storytelling and showy performance.
